McGinnis Woods Country Day School is participating in the Georgia Private School Tax Credit Program. We are partnering with the Georgia Student Scholarship Organization, a non-profit, which facilitates the donation and awarding process. Bob Jaison is the CEO of the Georgia Student Scholarship Program and has been a wonderful resource for our school and the many families who have participated in this program.

The Georgia Private School Tax Credit is a law that allows families and corporations to choose how their Georgia tax dollars are spent. The tax credit is a dollar for dollar credit which comes off of the Georgia Income Tax making the cost of the donation essentially zero. The donations can be made to specific schools. The law, House Bill 1133, allows up to 50 million per year in tax credits for donations to private schools.

Please visit www.gascholarships.org to read more information about this program and to obtain all of the forms which you would need to participate.
